

Captain Frank McKee

Captain Frank McKee is a life-long sailor and holds a US Coast Guard 100 Ton, near coastal Master Captain's License with Sailing and Towing Endorsements. Captain Frank has STCW Endorsement and has an equivalent license in the BVI allowing him to serve in capacity requiring a Boat Master Grade II license.

He is a ASA certified instructor and can teach the following ASA classes:

ASA 101 Basic Keelboat

ASA 103 Basic Coastal Cruising

ASA 104 Bareboat Cruising

ASA 105 Coastal Navigation

ASA106 Advanced Coastal Cruising

ASA 118 Docking.

Frank's personal sailing mantra is, "It is not the ship so much as the skillful sailing that assures the prosperous voyage." attributed to George William Curtis. His emphasis is on safety, preparation and fun in sailing.

Captain McKee's sailing experience includes thousands of hours in Pennsylvania lakes, waters off California, the Eastern US coast from Florida to New England, Mexico, the Mediterranean and the Caribbean. He moves boats commercially and has captained and crewed on countless sailing and power vessels in both cruising and racing scenarios.

He teaches sailing on the Chesapeake Bay and in the Virgin Islands during the winter, and sails out of Baltimore Yacht Club on his Pearson 30 sloop, "Imagine." during the summer.
